

Women's Council
· Wisconsin ·

WOMENSCOUNCIL.WI.GOV

Women's Council Board Biographies

Carrie Richard Mazomanie, WI

Carrie Richard was appointed to the Women's Council in May of 2013. She is a Human Resources Consultant at the University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics, providing consultative support for workforce issues that impact the overall operational strategy of the organization. She serves as the primary point of contact on human resource management policies, procedures and employment law for the Nursing and Patient Care Department and the American Family Children's Hospital.

Carrie received her B.S. in Political Science and Behavioral Science and Law, and her M.S. in Industrial Relations from the UW-Madison. Prior to her move into the human resources profession, she served as a legislative aide in the Legislature and was a staff assistant in the Milwaukee office of former Governor Thompson. Carrie also served as a Director of Development at the University of Wisconsin Foundation.

A two-term Town of Mazomanie Supervisor, Carrie was appointed by DOT Secretary Gottlieb to serve on the Town Road Improvement Discretionary Committee in 2012. She is a member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Sauk City and is active in classroom fundraising programs in the Sauk Prairie School District.

Carrie is married, the mother of two young children, and resides in the Town of Mazomanie, just outside of Sauk City, WI.