

Nominators and Nominated Businesses: When you start a Form, first you will be asked to agree to the Trailblazer Awards Program Terms and Conditions – printed below - before moving on with a nomination. An affirmative “I Agree” response is required to continue with the award nomination process

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By submitting an application and/or agreeing to nomination, the parties agree to the award terms, conditions and disclaimers, agree to be bound by the decision(s) of the Women's Council and its agents, and release the State of Wisconsin, Wisconsin Women's Council, the sponsors, and their agents, respective affiliates, subsidiaries, directors, officers and employees from any and all liability arising in connection with the award program, including without limitation, liability arising from application for or the acceptance of the award.

The Women's Council makes no guarantees as to the number and type of awards given. All submissions become the property of the Women's Council and part of its archives. By submitting an entry, the parties agree that the Women's Council and any other party authorized by it shall have permission to publish any material contained in the submission. Award entry material is on the public record and content may not be able to be treated confidentially. In carrying out the award program, the Women's Council and its agents are not responsible for omissions, oversights, or errors on their part, nor for late, lost, stolen, illegible, incomplete, mutilated, destroyed, delayed or postage due mailings, computer or other equipment or software failure or misdirected entries. Information provided in the award application is subject to audit and verification upon request. Applications deemed incomplete, illegible, or ineligible will be disqualified. If an entry is nominated for an award or receives an award, the manner and details of announcing such nomination and award is strictly within the discretion of Women's Council. A change in business status or eligibility during the award process may result in disqualification or withdrawal of award. Awards may not all be given or publicized in the same manner.

The decision of the Women's Council and its agents in making award designations and bestowing awards will be considered final. A list of award winners will be made available on the Women's Council web site at: www.womenscouncil.wi.gov/trailblazer. The award prize is solely recognition, but may also include plaques, certificates and/or other mementos of no or limited cash value, and/or invitations to award programs and events.
