

Women's Council
· Wisconsin ·

WOMENSCOUNCIL.WI.GOV

Patty Cadorin, Chair

Milwaukee

Vice President and Senior Advisor BMO Harris Bank

Patty Cadorin is Vice President and Senior Advisor of BMO Harris Bank. Previously, she was Chief of Staff to the CEO. Prior to the acquisition of Marshall & Ilsley Corporation by BMO Financial Group, Patty was Senior Vice President and Corporate Communications Director for Marshall & Ilsley Corporation.

Patty is the chair of the Wisconsin Women's Council, serves on the board of directors of the United Community Center; Building Brave; the Milwaukee Urban League; and is a member of the United Way Women's Initiative Leadership Council. She is the former chair of the board of directors of Aurora Family Service and the Donors Forum of Wisconsin. Patty is a former member of the board of directors of the Women's Fund of Greater Milwaukee, and Zink the Zebra Foundation. She co-chaired the 2015 United Performing Arts Fund community campaign and helped lead a record-breaking $12 million fund-raising campaign. Patty also co-chaired the Aurora Healthcare Gala in 2016, the Boys and Girls Club Transformations Fashion Show in 2008, co-chaired the Sharp Literacy Novel Event in 2008, and was a member of the NFL Alumni/Big Brothers Big Sisters Golf Tournament committee for 19 years.

Patty was the recipient of the Business Journal Women of Influence award in 2003, the St. Francis Children's Center Children's Service Award in 2007, the Tempo Mentor Award in 2008, the Lynde Uihlein Award from the Women's Fund of Greater Milwaukee in 2011, and the Friend of the Hispanic Community Award from the United Community Center in 2011. In 2016, she was awarded the Ally Award from the Hispanic Professionals of Greater Milwaukee and the Civic Leader Award from the Fellowship Open. Patty was recognized with the UPAF Notable Women Award in 2017.

A graduate of the University of Iowa, Patty holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in French, Spanish and secondary education.