Women's Council Board Biographies

Cindy Block
Cottage Grove, WI

Ms. Block recently retired as legislative aide and paralegal in the Office of Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald, where she has worked since 1995. Ms. Block's provides policy research, coordinates bill drafting with senator and policy director and drafts resolutions; meets with lobbyists and constituents; and works with the Senate Chief Clerk to plan and implement senate inaugural floor sessions and coordinate Senate Fallen Soldier recognitions. She also oversees constituent relations and meets with community leaders and constituents regarding district issues, as well as managing the day-to-day operations of the office.

Ms. Block's career in the State Capitol spans more than 30 years. Prior to serving on Senator Fitzgerald's staff, she served in the Office of Senator Barbara Lorman, providing public relations and constituent relations; on the staff of the Senate Republican Caucus, where she staffed and reported on senate committees and actions; and in the Office Governor Lee Sherman Dreyfus, providing paralegal support to the Governor's legal counsel and administered the Governor's Pardon Advisory Board.

Ms. Block is a member of the UW Alumni Association and the Madison Paralegal Association. She and her husband reside in Cottage Grove and are avid dog lovers.
